

LAWS OF THE GAMBIA

VOLUME 14

IN FORCE ON
THE FIRST DAY OF SEPTEMBER 2009

REVISED EDITION

Prepared under the Authority of the Law Revision Act, 1990

BY

Mr. Raymond Sock (ORG) B.A. (cum laude), M.A. of the Inns of Court School of Law and the Middle Temple
Barrister-at-law (B.L Hons.)

COMMISSIONER FOR LAW REVISION

ASSISTED BY

Mrs. Grace O. Mowoe (MRG) B.A. (Hons.-Law) B.L.
Hon Mrs. Justice Esther A. Ota, LL.B B.L.
Mr. Cherno Marenah, LL.B LL.M

PUBLISHED BY

LexisNexis (Proprietary) Limited South Africa by the authority of the Government of The Gambia 2009

CHAPTER 86:06EXCISE ACT*ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS*PART IPreliminarySECTION

1. Short title.
2. Interpretation.
3. What shall be deemed acts of the Commissioner-General.
4. Officers to have powers of members of the Police Force.
5. Authority to be produced by person acting for another.
6. Goods to be handled by owner.
7. Rewards.
8. Remission or refund of excise duties.
9. President may restore seizures.
10. All bonds and securities entered into to be valid.
11. Surety to be deemed a principal debtor.

PART II*Duties and Drawbacks*

12. Imposition and variation of duties.
13. Presumptive charge.
14. Excise duties short levied or erroneously refunded.
15. Effect of obligation to pay duty.
16. Duty to be paid at rate in force on delivery.
17. Restriction on deliveries from warehouse and factory.
18. Disputes as to duty payable.
19. Duty to be proportionate to quantity, strength and value.
20. Goods used contrary to purpose for which delivered.
21. Contract prices of goods may be adjusted to meet change in excise duty.
22. Minister may direct granting of drawbacks.
23. Certification of document for payment of drawback and refund of duties paid in error.

SECTION

24. No duty payable on goods exported, shipped as stores and the like.
25. Duty on goods lost may be remitted.
26. When duty payable.
27. Commissioner-General may distrain for duties.
28. Commissioner-General may revoke licence of permission to manufacture.
29. Deficiency and excess in stock.

PART III

Warehouses

30. Bond may be required of warehouse keeper.
31. Duty not payable on goods warehoused.
32. Further conditions.
33. Restrictions on removal.
34. Government not liable for loss in warehouse.
35. Removal to and from warehouse.
36. Revocation of appointment of warehouse.

PART IV

Removal

37. Goods loaded deemed delivered.
38. Certificates.
39. Offences in regard to certificates.
40. Illegal removal.
41. Receiving without certificate.

PART V

Obligations of Manufacturers and Warehouse Keepers

42. Manufacturer to obtain permission of Commissioner-General to manufacture.
43. Licence to apply to one set of premises only.
44. Publication of licences granted.
45. Disqualification for licence.
46. Transfer on death of licensee or on assignment or transfer.
47. Transfer to other premises.
48. Books to be kept by manufacturer or warehouse keeper and offences in regard thereto.
49. Manufacturer to produce books and invoices.

SECTION

50. Power to require certificate of audit.
51. Description of premises to be delivered to Commissioner-General.
52. Standards, marking, storing.
53. Instruments to be kept by manufacturer.
54. Commissioner-General may station officer on licensed premises.
55. Assistance to be afforded to officers.

PART VI

Powers of Officers

56. Officer may patrol freely.
57. Officer may enter factory.
58. Officer may examine stock of vendor.
59. Officer may search house and other places and seize goods.
60. Officer may stop ship, aircraft or carriage.
61. Power to search person.
62. Power to arrest.

PART VII

Offences

63. General penalty.
64. Penalty for manufacture without a licence.
65. Penalty where goods forfeited.
66. Penalty for false declaration.
67. Penalty for evading excise laws generally.
68. Obstructing officer.
69. Personation of officer.
70. Penalty for signalling to offender.
71. Offering goods for sale under pretence that the duties are not paid.
72. Officer taking unauthorised fee.

PART VIII

Seizures

73. General provisions as to forfeiture.
74. Procedure on seizure.
75. Disposal of seizure.
76. Claim to seized goods to be in the name of owner.

PART IX

Legal Proceedings

SECTION

- 77. Civil proceedings.
- 78. Power of court to commit to prison.
- 79. Criminal proceedings.
- 80. Costs.
- 81. Power of Commissioner-General to sue for lesser forfeiture or mitigate penalty.
- 82. Proceedings under the excise laws to be instituted within seven years.
- 83. Place of offence.
- 84. Officer may prosecute.
- 85. Certificate of probable cause of seizure or act of officer.
- 86. Where proceedings taken defendant may be arrested.
- 87. Penalties to be paid to general revenue.

PART X

Proof in Proceedings

- 88. Onus of proof on defendant in certain cases.
- 89. Evidence of officers.
- 90. Commissioner-General to certify value.
- 91. Government Analyst's certificate sufficient evidence.
- 92. Admissibility of copies of documents.
- 93. Proof of order of President and other persons.
- 94. Certificate of condemnation.

PART XI

Supplementary

- 95. Regulations.
- 96. Forms.
- 97. Removal and delivery in special circumstances.
- 98. Restriction on use of materials.

FIRST SCHEDULE

SECOND SCHEDULE

Form of Warranty of Distress
